

BIOGRAPHY

Christopher Dolan

Christopher Dolan is a husband, father, Christ follower, worship leader, singer, song writer, and volunteer minister to those in distress. Christopher grew up on Long Island, New York and discovered his passion for music early in life. Christopher came to know Christ at nineteen years old when a close music friend shared the Good News of Jesus Christ with him. Since then, Christ has been at the center of all of his music. Christopher is focused on writing, recording and performing music that encourages people of all ages and backgrounds in their faith. A big part of Christopher's ministry is to bring awareness and support to many other faith based ministries.

WRITING MUSIC

Christopher believes that words in music are so important because he desires the listener to hear the heart of God. While writing in Nashville, Tennessee his goal is to listen to God's Words through the Holy Spirit to pour inspiration into each song. Christopher writes music from a personal story that encourages and uplifts all people of all ages. In his music you will hear real encouragement in the truth that you are unconditionally and dearly loved by God. Each song is designed to remind us daily that there is always real hope in Jesus Christ.
