

Bill Fair

---

STILL LYRICS

Is it over yet? Can I finally breathe?
Is it tomorrow yet, come to rescue me?
Bright colors fade to gray, dark clouds another day,
Hanging by a thread, is it over yet?

When the world's gone crazy and I can't break through,
When the fire is fading, still ..... there's you,
When my heart is empty and I can't go on,
There's a reason to be . . . still, there's You.

There's a plan I know,
Answers time will show,
Waiting for the light,
I know it's gonna' be alright.

Show me a life bigger than this,
Where things make sense,
Where there is peace, peace.

When the world's gone crazy and I can't break through,
When the fire is fading, still there's you,
When my heart is empty and I can't go on,
There's a reason to be . . . still, there's You.....

SWEET SURRENDER LYRICS

Father, we are silenced by the darkness on this cold and winding road,
This burden of fear that we carry has become too much for us to hold,
Lift us up on wings of comfort, for we need You to hold us through the night.

Sweet surrender, we lay our lives in Your hands,
Do with them as You will, our Father
But hold us still through the night.

Guard our lives from things we can't see,
Terrors that have torn us from the light,
Be our fortress and our counselor, our shelter in this holy fight.
Fill us up with words of comfort, for we need You to lead us through the dark.

Sweet surrender, we lay our lives in Your hands,
Do with them as You will, our Father,
But hold us still through the night.

We lift our eyes to you . . .