Stand For You

Lyrics

Here in this moment there's always a choice to stand up for what is the truth

Faith over fear oh I will rejoice for freedom is found here in you

I won't be shamed into the lies and I will not run, I will not hide

I will stand for you

Through the flood or the fire I'll lift your name higher and stand for you when the world bows to evil I'll soar like an eagle and at the end of it all, I wanna be standing so tall Standing for you

When hate is the language that some choose to speak, I will sing louder with love For you give me strength over my enemies to show them that you are enough

I won't be ashamed I won't deny I will not run if it cost me my life

I will stand for you. Through the flood or the fire I'll lift your name higher and stand for you when the world bows to evil I'll soar like an eagle and at the end of it all, I wanna be standing so tall Standing for you. Standing for you yeah yeah

I won't be shamed into the lies and I will not run I will not hide

and stand for you. Through the flood or the fire I'll lift your name higher and stand for you when the world bows to evil I'll soar like an eagle and at the end of it all, I wanna be standing so tall and at the end of it all, I wanna be standing so tall Standing for you

Standing for you Yeah Yeah
