MARTY DEROCHE

Marty DeRoche is a Gospel Recording Artist who was born and raised in Louisville, Kentucky. It was there that his love for music began. Singing in the youth choir at his church, and then in the Choir at Butler High School. Marty is also member of Who's Who in Music. He gave his life to Christ at an early age of ten (10) at Shively Heights Baptist Church.

Marty's dream out of high school was to one day sing a BJ Thomas gospel song on the Grand Ole Opry, but God must have known that wasn't going to happen and led him in a new direction. He has been in the ministry for the last 28 years as a Pastor of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Currently he is at Denmark Baptist and feels blessed to be their pastor.

He lives in Southern Illinois with his wife, Delora Cox DeRoche. His wife encouraged him to return to his love for Gospel Music. In 2019, he released his first project, "Bridge of Love", and then in August of 2020, he released the song "This Journey". "This Journey" was written in honor of my wife and her sister, Dawn Bruder, who both were diagnosed with Breast Cancer about a year and a few months apart. My sister in-law asked me to write a song about their journey and all CD sales are going to an Educational Scholarship in Dawn's name.

I'm so blessed to have a wife who supports and encourages me in this new addition to our ministry. I'm also thankful for my friend and producer Monty Jackson, who has had quite the career himself. I've been so blessed in so many ways. I often reflect about the blessings that God has entrusted to me. Always remembering, God is Good all the time, and all the time God is Good!
